UFM Needs Folk Dance Instructors Festival Is Sunday

The University for Man, the Peninsula's "free university," is seeking people willing and qualified to lead classes for a summer program.

The only requirement for class leaders is that they be competent to lead a group in the subject they wish to teach. Anyone interested in participating in the summer UFM program should call 375-9821, extension 248, between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. on weekdays.

All classes sponsored by UFM are taught on a volunteer basis and there is no credit given for class completion. The only benefit to students is the experience gained in the class.

The spring program included over 50 groups studying such diverse subjects as: introduction to the stock market, hatha yoga, cooking, silk screen making, consumer mechanics, geology, piano, hypoglycemia, women's lib, and human sexuality.

UFM is an autonomous community organization using facilities at Monterey Peninsula College.

An afternoon of folk dancing has been scheduled for Sunday, May 7, at Monterey Peninsula College when the MPC Folk Dancers present their first annual Mayfest.

Folk dancing exhibitions by local clubs and organizations will be a main feature of the afternoon, including a maypole dance performed by students from Carmel High School. Many groups will appear in costume.

Individuals interested in watching or participating in the dancing are encouraged to attend the event, which will be held from 1-4 p.m. by the college dance studio on the football field. Admission is free.

"It should be a very colorful afternoon," according to Diane Smith, MPC folk dance instructor. "We will have many people coming in authentic costumes and there will be refreshments served."

New Board Member Is Appointed

Announcement was made by the Christian Science Board of Directors that Otto Bertschi, C.S.B., of Zurich, Switzerland will succeed Clayton Bion Craig, C.S.B., of Boston, who retired from that Board recently after more than 23 years of service.

Mr. Bertschi, who has lectured on Monterey Peninsula several times, has the distinction of being the first from overseas to become a Director of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts.

Among the progressive steps associated with Mr. Craig's vision and leadership are the planning and development of the Christian Science Center in Boston and the extension of the copyright of the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy.

Mr. Bertschi has served the Christian Science movement in a number of capacities including Christian Science lecturer, teacher and Committee of Publication. A native of Zurich, Mr. Bertschi graduated from the Winterthur Institute of Technology and was an electrical engineer for a number of years before devoting his full time to the public practice of Christian Science.

The Board of Directors also announced the laying of the cornerstone of a new 28-story Administration Building at the Christian Science Center on April 18. Increased spiritual outreach to all mankind was the theme of a quiet ceremony which marked the event. The world wide activities of the Christian Science denomination are centered in Boston.

Leave'em and love it.

A dishwasher can save you about twenty hours of dishwashing drudgery a month. And since it uses hotter water than your hands can stand, your dishes, pots and pans will come out cleaner and more sanitary. Hold dirty dishes in it until there's a full load, instead of frequent washing, and you'll save water, detergent and heat. It's a rinser, washer, dryer all in one. And you can warm plates and store dishes to be washed in it, too. You'd love what a dishwasher can do for you.

Chamber of Commerce Progress Report

Seaside is on the move! New ideas are leading to new action, which can only mean progress for the entire community. The members of the Seaside Chamber of Commerce are growing and progressing. New committees and task forces are developing programs to help the businessmen increase his profits and to help create a more dynamic economy.

Every Thursday at 8 a.m., the Board of Directors meet to hear committee reports and to discuss old and new business. Members and interested non-members are welcome to attend and to add their ideas to the discussions which lead to new action in the Chamber. The Membership Committee is holding meetings every Wednesday at 7:30 a.m. These early birds are organizing block chairmen to help encourage new members to join the Chamber. They are also planning to divide the membership into professional and type of business groupings, so similar interests will be fully represented.

To develop new business and promote the City of Seaside, the Business Development and Publications Committee is busy preparing a professional audio-visual presentation that the Chamber can use to show the Seaside of today and tomorrow. It will sketch the outstanding growth and potential in this City. The slide presentation can be used for schools, service clubs, or to sell Seaside to prospective new businesses who might want to know more about the area.

Naturally, the Chamber is planning some exciting promotions to help the businessmen in Seaside.

This is only the beginning, with increased membership and renewed interest, the Chamber will be able to tackle the problems of the entire community. But we need help, and that means you, the businessman or woman, the professional, the citizen, everyone can belong to the Chamber and become an active force. Whether it's research to provide the correct facts and figures for a new brochure, whether it's working on the Pancake Breakfast during the 4th of July, or helping to create a stronger membership, or discussing the plans and developments the city might propose, the Chamber needs you. To belong to the Chamber is a small investment in your future, for by working with your fellow businessmen and professional men, you can create the kind of action you just cannot do alone.

The Chamber is open from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., so come in for coffee and learn more about why you should become involved in your Seaside Chamber of Commerce.

Community

Theater

Is Closing

At the last meeting of the Board of Governors of the Community Theatre, they agreed to suspend operation of the Community Theatre, located on Casanova Street in Carmel, at the close of the current production of Happy Time on Saturday, May 13. The reason surrounding this decision was twofold: First, a recent inspection of the facility by the Chief Building Inspector of the City of Carmel and a representative of the State Division of Industrial Safety disclosed a series of deficiencies with regard to electrical wiring and equipment, particularly in the backstage area. The cost of rectifying the items outlined in the safety report is approximately $8,000.

A secondary problem is one of mounting costs in the general operation of the Theatre, without appreciable increase in the box-office and member support.

Although productions have been suspended, the Community Theatre will remain as an organization. The Board is at the present time actively seeking a new location on the Monterey Peninsula.

The Board of Governors is hopeful that suggestions from members and the public at large will be forthcoming concerning the continued life of the Community Theatre.

Questions are Answered

Q -- I am the wife of a veteran with a service-connected disability rated at 30 percent. Can I receive medical treatment at a VA hospital?

A -- No. The VA provides medical treatment only to eligible veterans.

Q -- I have "V"-prefixed National Service Life Insurance and wonder if I can carry this insurance after age 50.

A -- Yes, but it should be remembered that premiums for five-year-level term policies increase every five years as you grow older.

Q -- I was attending college under the G.I. Bill and changed to vocational school. Can I change back to college?

A -- Possibly. The VA may approve the second change if, after counseling, it is determined that the change is in keeping with your abilities and interest and there is a reasonable chance you can successfully complete the program.

portant subject that you desire, as long as your thoughts are good.

This evening I meditated in the Clear White Light for a short time. During that time my thoughts were at the Community Hospital, focused on a certain room in the Intensive Care Unit. I was looking down not on a stranger and I said, "There, but for you, lay I." The Clear White Light clouded and disappeared. I found myself in my original meditating position. I closed my eyes again hoping I could recapture the scene immediately. It did not work. Instead, I found myself walking along a beach. There were no sounds like waves, birds, sea lions or children at play. Just a clear, white strip of isolated firmament seemingly untouched by man. No foot-tracks, no kelp, no rocks, no waves, no clouds and, very noticeably, no sound. This wasn't the place I had tried to reach. I knew from past experiences that your unconscious mind could never conceive what your conscious mind rejects. So again the Clear White Light clouded and disappeared. Since I was unable to return to the original place at the hospital, I became frustrated and disappointed. I have been unable to erase that.

As I sat down tonight, I mentioned that there were many thoughts running through my mind. Now you know why. Those moments of meditation are more like a dream, but yet, not like a dream. Some dreams seem real. There was not that much reality present. Like no waves at a beach. Not real at all. Or no children playing. Still not real. Someone said that when what appears real to you loses its appearance of reality, then and only then are you able to detach yourself enough to seek; to find a new permanent reality. You and you alone can make your realities permanent through your protection of it.

Form itself is not real. Your mind within you is the only real and permanent thing. Everything else changes. Everything else has a "connecting wire" that controls your joys and sorrows, your smiles and tears, your good and bad. You control the only real thing in your being, and that is your mind. Your mind can protect your realities and make them permanent. Your realities are all the things you have concluded as being real. Since your mind is going to protect these realities permanently, it is to your advantage to keep them good. You would never want to live with bad ideas all your life. Or bad habits, or would you? Take my advice and "Check Out Your Mind."

Well, we are all settling down now after a whirlwind schedule. But it will only be for a moment or two. We have completed the MISS MARINA CONTEST, and Janice Carroll led the Marina Day Parade last Sunday. We have had the MISS MONTEREY COUNTY CONTEST and the winner, Debbie Elder, has retreated to her Pacific Grove functions to await her future assignments. Now we have a very very brief breather until the MISS BLACK MONTEREY PENINSULA TEENAGER is selected to run in the MISS BLACK CALIFORNIA TEENAGER CONTEST. The winner of that will run in the MISS BLACK AMERICA CONTEST to be held at Madison Square Gardens in New York. All in all this county is just loaded with activities.

There is just one contest that just seems to hover over this area constantly. That is the contest between the local weekly newspaper and the local daily newspaper. Seems that both newspapers are contesting between each other with "John Q. Public" carrying the ball and calling the shots. There are no judges imported from disinterested cities. The only thing that keeps this contest alive is the consciousness and actions of people who hold the purse string.

I better close now because my boss reviews my reviews. We thank you for the extra effort put forth. It worked! He's improving again. Out of isolation and undergoing tests in preparation for an operation that will put him on his feet again. You are a bunch of wonderful people out there. I wish I could hug each and everyone of you. God bless you all.

PARKING AT THE MONTEREY COURTHOUSE continues to be a serious problem. After much thought and daily observation I have come to the conclusion that something MUST BE DONE NOW. It is my intention to ask the other members of the Board to join with me in requesting the moving of the Food Stamp Eligibility Certification Department to leased quarters in some other location-preferably near the Monterey Post Office. This would be a logical move because all people receiving Food Stamp Vouchers at the Monterey County Courthouse must go to the Monterey Post Office to obtain their Food Stamps. Such action would result in moving approximately 10 or more staff cars out of needed parking spaces, but even more important it would release as many as 30 or more parking spaces used by applicants for Eligibility Cards periodically. In addition to making it more convenient for recipients of Food Stamps it would provide badly needed parking space for the General Public using the courthouse facilities and also our Attor-

As I See It

By Mel Vercoe

Your third grandchild may be born on the moon. Dr. Werner Von Braun, the German rocket expert who became America's guiding light in developing intercontinental nuclear bomb delivery systems, predicts that by the year 2,000 the first child will be born on the surface of the moon.

Think of it. Only 2,000 years ago a man was crucified for caring about people, and today we have advanced to the point where a man who has helped develop the means to incinerate millions of people within a few seconds can get huge headlines on a major city newspaper by predicting a baby will be born on the moon.

The news account did not elaborate on the birth of the baby, except that Dr. Von Braun said, "when we go back to the moon, we would like to have huge homes like pressurized modules that would allow a man to sleep in his pajamas."

The more I think about it, the more I wish I could go there, myself. I have always wondered what it would be like to have a huge home, and my only pair of pajamas was somehow misplaced several years ago. And there would be no such thing as having to drag myself out of bed in the morning to go to work. A moon day is 28 days long, not 24 hours, so we can forget about the mornings and nights, and on the moon I would weigh only about 30 pounds, which means one medium-effort leap would get me all the way to the bathroom with almost no drag effect.

Seriously, I have to question the whole idea that a baby will be born on the moon. The year 2,000 AD is 28 years in the future, and I can't believe that by that time we won't find some more practical or useful way to spend another 30 billion dollars. Not that this is much money, mind you, if it was broken down into piles of one million dollars each. There would only be 30 thousand piles.

The present program of moon exploration will end after the next Apollo flight, but luckily the military industrial complex was able to sell Congress the idea of spending another 30 billion, give or take 5 or 10 billion, to develop a space shuttle. The space shuttle would be a very interesting toy, no more, no less, but from the Nixon administration's point of view it will have one very big thing going for it. It will continue the legalized robbery of tax money out of the U.S. Treasury and prevent it from falling into the hands of people who might use it to upgrade our social structure with programs that would reach and give hope to ordinary people. Meanwhile, back on the moon, remember "it is better to be rich and healthy than poor and sick."

SEASIDE'S BUDGET

Currently the City Manager and Department Heads are laboriously reviewing each item submitted on the proposed department's "want list". The budget process for fiscal year 1972-73, although far from complete, gives every indication that our city neers who are so often pressed for time and need parking space in close proximity to the Courthouse.

The Board of Supervisors have also authorized the Construction of approximately twenty more spaces for parking on the lower level off Agujito. Looking to the future I believe it will be necessary to build a parking facility on the Courthouse property to take care of at least another 100 cars. The last solution suggested will take time to work out...the first two can be accomplished within a short time. Every time I walk up the "hill" from the lower level I can't help wishing this beautiful Courthouse might have built in a more accessible location.

government is confronted with a serious basic revenue problem. The existing revenue base does not keep pace with expenditures for even current service. This imbalance in revenue growth has resulted in a widening gap between revenues and expenditures which will continue until the basic problem is resolved. There is no mystery about the reasons why. The reater cost of goods, rising population, increased salaries and fringe benefits and the need to replace antiquated capital equipment all account for a growing budget. Our fire department urgently requires replacement of aging fire-fighting equipment; we must include funds for acquisition of new, modern and efficient equipment. In the past major capital improvements have been curtailed pending new sources of revenue. Adequate fire protection cannot be postponed.

A long term solution to the city fiscal crisis must accomplish two goals. It must narrow or eliminate the existing gap between municipal revenues and expenditures, and it must materially improve the annual growth of city revenues.

Services that are "in the balance" include police protection, fire protection, parks, library, recreation and the Youth Center, sewage disposal, a new water well, streets, and a host of other municipal activities.

I can assure you that we are exploring all avenues to obtain outside help—that is—revenue from the County, State and Federal Governments. We have been advised that The House Committee on WAYS and MEANS reported out a revenue sharing bill, the State and Local Fiscal Assistance Act of 1972, on April 17. The bill provides that the effective date of the program is retroactive to January 1, 1972. The Ways and Means Committee of the National League of Cities advised us that Seaside will be entitled to $465,000 when this bill is enacted into law. I urge all of Seaside's citizens to contact our Congressman and urge him to vote for the bill. I am hopeful that it will soon be enacted into law.

My immediate goal is to hold the line on taxes this year with an objective to reduce taxes by at least 10 percent next year.

Your Social Security

As a disabled Vietnam veteran, I get benefits from the Veterans Administration based on a 60 percent disability. Could I also get monthly Social Security checks on my disability?

We can't give you a definite answer without knowing more about your case because the Social Security disability program doesn't work the same way as the VA's. Social Security pays benefits to insured workers who are so severely disabled that they can't work for a year or more. Contact any Social Security office and apply for disability insurance benefits to get a decision on your particular case.

Fort Ord Wins Award

Ray R. Martinez, director of training for the National Safety Council, Chicago, presented an award, Best Performance by a Military Installation, for Ft. Ord's Defensive Driving Course to Major General H.G. Moore, April 21.

In training 43,746 soldiers and civilian employees during 1971, Ft. Ord trained more drivers in one year than any other single military installation or civilian organization in the history of the National Safety Council's defensive driving program.

Robert E. Ferguson, Safety Section of the Directorate of Personnel and Community Activities, has been in charge of the program since it began in November 1970. Mr. Martinez was also here at that time to train the instructors for the course.

Navy Faculty Promotions Announced

Nineteen faculty members at the Naval Postgraduate School have been named to receive promotions or tenure with the start of Academic Year 1972-73 according to Dr. Milton U. Clauser, the school's provost.

Effective in July, H.A. Titus (Electrical Engineering), 4039 Mora Lane in Pebble Beach and K. H. Woehler (Physics), 191 Del Monte Blvd., Pacific Grove, will be promoted to the rank of full professor.

Associate professorships will go to the following: N.E. Boston, 45 El Cuadro, Salinas (Oceanography); R.L. Elsberry, 1050 Waring St., Seaside (Meteorology); T.M. Houlihan, 3186 Susan Ave., Marina and M.D. Kelleher, 25000 Outlook Dr., Carmel (Mechanical Engineering); D.W. Netzer, 9367 Bur Oak Place, Salinas (Aeronautics); J.G. Taylor, 9363 Bur Oak Place, Salinas (Operations Research and Administrative Sciences); and T. Williamson, 34 Ralston Drive, Monterey (Physics).

The following faculty members, all associate professors, will receive tenure: R.H. Nunn, 115 Melton Place, Pacific Grove and P.J. Marto, 25302 Outlook Drive, Carmel (Mechanical Engineering); R.E. Ball, 642 Toyon Drive, Monterey, and G.H. Lindsay, 22489 Ferdinand Drive, Salinas (Aeronautics); J.E. Dawson, 2826 Congress Road, Pebble Beach, and W.A. Mauer, 2853 Stof Road, Pebble Beach (Navy Management Systems Center); J.C. Nielsen, 5 Walter Colton Dr., Monterey (Aviation Safety); C.F. Rowell, 1210 Presidio Blvd., Pacific Grove (Material Science & Chemistry); R.H. Stolfi, 25395 Via Cincinella, Carmel (Government & Humanities); and C.O. Wilde, Junipero and Ridgewood, Carmel (Mathematics).

Seat Belt Wearers Are Rewarded

While pondering a new safety program and trying to find an incentive for wearing seat belts, Mr. Robert E. Ferguson, from the Safety Section of the Directorate of Personnel and Community Activities, struck upon the brilliant notion of money. Lots of money would be impractical, but a special kind of money would do—like the newly minted Eisenhower dollar.

One quick call to the Bank of America and the Safety Section acquired 200 Eisenhower silver dollars. With these as an incentive, the new safety program was underway.

In early March, five military and civilian employees from the Safety Section started setting up spot-check road blocks. The purpose was to check to see if people were wearing their seat belts and, if they were, to reward them with a silver dollar attached to a card saying: "Congratulations. Because your seat belts or shoulder restraints were secured, the Fort Ord Safety Office is pleased to present you a newly minted Eisenhower Silver Dollar as a partial reward for having developed this safety habit. However, the intrinsic value of this gift is completely secondary to the real reward to be gained by using safety equipment, that of the gift of life or the prevention of crippling injuries. Please continue the use of these life-saving devices and encourage others to develop this habit."

If a driver is not wearing his seat belt all he receives is a card saying "Sorry" and encouraging him to use his safety equipment.

To date, there have been eight road blocks, Mr. Ferguson says. "We do this unannounced and on a spot basis. We don't tell where we're going to be in advance because we feel we get a better reaction this way; we catch them as they normally drive their car."

Bill Will Insure Safe Conditions

The Assembly recently passed by a vote of 49 to 11 a bill designed to insure safe working conditions for farm workers in pesticide treated areas proposed by Assemblyman Bob Wood. The bill is a bi-partisan effort and was put together through the efforts of Assemblyman Wood and Assemblywoman March Fong (D-Oakland). The legislation already has the support of the Department of Public Health and the Department of Agriculture. Wood said, "both of these Departments have worked closely in the development of this legislation in trying to reach a solution to our pesticide health problems."

AB 246 is being supported by the County Health Officers Association, County Agricultural Commissioners Association and the Northern California Chapter of the Environmental Health Officers Association. Wood stated that "our movement away from the use of DDT and other pesticides may encourage the use of more toxic alternative chemicals. As more and more of these pesticides are being used, it is becoming imperative that the State have tough regulations to prevent injury or harm to the farm worker, the pesticide applicator, and the farmer and his family, themselves."

The Monterey County Assemblyman went on to say that the agricultural industry is also in support of the bill. "They feel," he said, "that it is important that safe guidelines be established for the care and harvesting of their products. On the Assembly floor, 28 Republicans were joined by 21 Democrats in passing the bill overwhelmingly to the Senate."

Drive Is Dropped

A campaign by students for new legislation to give local school boards options in controlling -- or not controlling -- smoking on campuses has gone up in smoke.

Jim Summers, one of two Seaside High School students who began a petition drive in January, announced that the campaign has been dropped. Summers and fellow student George Leinen distributed petitions to 15 area high schools, hoping to obtain 5,000 signatures to take to Sacramento to influence legislators. Summers said only 400 signatures have been returned to date and from only three of the 15 high schools -- Seaside, Aptos and North Salinas.

The pari was attempting to get legislation that would allow local school boards to establish smoking regulations. State law now forbids smoking on high school campuses, but on many such campuses the high number of student smokers frustrates attempts by administrators and teachers to enforce the law.

Some persons have advocated that schools be allowed to set aside areas on campus where smoking would be permitted. Summers and Leinen said they were not advocating any particular solution, or encouraging students to smoke. They undertook the campaign because they viewed the present law as unenforceable, Summers explained.

Bob Wood Reports

The State Supreme Court recently freed from the gas chamber Charles Manson, Sirhan Sirhan and 100 other dangerous murderers now on Death Row. In one fell swoop, the Court abolished capital punishment in California, thereby reversing a 1968 decision upholding the death penalty.

Almost annually for over a 20-year span, the question of capital punishment has been before the Legislature and each time the Legislature has upheld the death penalty. Public opinion polls have overwhelmingly favored the punishment and 41 states have voted to retain it.

The Court, in its decision, said, "We have concluded that capital punishment is both cruel and unusual and therefore death may not be exacted as punishment for crime in this State."

The Court failed to mention that it has been the courts, particularly the California Supreme Court and the U. S. Supreme Court, that have made capital punishment the cruel and unusual punishment the court described in its opinion. Actually, it has been the courts that have destroyed any deterrent effect of capital punishment by imposing what is nearly a five-year moratorium on capital punishment.

"...Capital punishment can have a significant deterrent effect only if the punishment is swiftly and certainly exacted," said the Court.

Yet the Court has prevented just that by setting on some of its automatic appeals, such as in the case of Francisco Salas, convicted and found guilty of the fatal shooting of a Sacramento sheriff's deputy, for more than two years without a decision.

Years ago, author-critic H. L. Mencken said that the "real objection to capital punishment doesn't lie against the actual extermination of the condemned but against our brutal American habit of putting it off so long. No sane man would choose such a finish. That wait, I believe, is horribly cruel." However, because of court delays and rulings there have been no executions since 1967.

Many people have related to me through word of mouth and by letters that the question of whether the death penalty should be restored should be decided by a vote of the people. Even this, however, cannot, or should not, be done before the U.S. Supreme Court makes its ruling on the issue. The reason being that if the federal Court should decide against capital punishment, such a ruling would supersede any decision of the people of California in the case.

In the meantime, what do we hold over the head of a prisoner serving a life term for murder unless it is the death penalty? What is to keep the life-term convict from killing a guard or fellow inmate just for the pleasure of obtaining a change of scenery?

Grooving Around the Peninsula

with BETTY MANN

Hi there, Fellow Peninsulans: Happenings along the party circuit around town the past few weeks were: Bill and Rose Deberry hosted a group of friends to a joyous "after the election campaign party" in their lovely home on Athens Court on Sunday afternoon, April 16. Delectable servings of barbecue ribs, steak, chicken and all the trimmings were enjoyed by the guests. A vast assortment of potent type cocktails were expertly concocted by the swingingest cook and bartender about town, Nujames Harris. The party was quite a gig with the guests dancing to a variety of rock and soul music during the afternoon. It ended late in the evening with Rose Deberry playing a variety of medleys on the piano from Compositions of Mozart, Beethoven and back to a variety of Negro spirituals of which guests joined in beautiful harmony and sung. By the way, Rose is an accomplished concert pianist, as well as, a licensed ballet teacher.

Victor and Garnett Noble hosted a group of friends in their lovely abode, the Casa Vista, at a farewell party in honor of Mrs. Renata Atkinson who was former assistant manager of the Fort Ord Main Exchange. Renata has been assigned as manager of the Castle Air Force Base Main Exchange and will reside in the nearby town of Merced with her husband, SFC Eddy Atkinson and their daughter, Debra.

A soul food dinner was held at the home of Delores Hebert in honor of Cleady Phillips who is competing for the title of Mrs. NAACP at next Saturday night's NAACP coronation ball which is to be held at the Del Monte Hyatt House. With all of the soul food dinners, barbecues, cocktail sips and international teas that have been held in the past week by the various contestants, the NAACP will reap the glad tidings and benefits of these worthwhile accomplishments. Amen! and right on! to the
